Michael Borgese

      For my semester project I will be creating a card playing application. The app will contain multiple card games. The main game of the app will be black jack. If I have extra time I will also add other games to the app. The app will have a very aesthetically pleasing and will include a GUI that the user will be able to easily use. This will be my semester project.